

Be creative for a great cause!

The Peninsula SPCA is a private, donation-run, no-kill animal shelter in Newport News, Virginia.

The shelter's services include adoption, humane education offerings to students and civic groups, and outreach programs to the citizens of our community.

The Peninsula SPCA's mission is to find loving homes for every animal in its care, and to advocate for the humane treatment of all animals in our community.

We hope you will join this effort!

RAISE THE WOOF

Peninsula Fine Arts Center

Animal Habitats as Community Projects and Works of Art

A project benefiting PFAC
and the Peninsula SPCA

Raise the Woof is an opportunity for creative people just like you to make a unique dog house, cat condo, rabbit hutch, bird house, chicken coop, or piece of pet furniture. All entries will be sold by silent auction during the Raise the Woof event on August 6, 2017 from 2 – 5 pm at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center in Newport News, Virginia. Entries will also be eligible for cash awards totaling $1000, selected by our celebrity judges!

Raise the Woof is open to everyone from builders, architects, and landscapers to artists, students, and community groups. You can work in teams or as an individual.

Prior to the event, the entries will be on display at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center and the Peninsula SPCA in conjunction with PFAC's Dream House Remix exhibition, which opens on July 8, 2017. After all, pets are part of the home too!

By submitting an entry, you not only showcase your creative skills, but also help raise money to support the well-being of animals. We can't wait to see your work!

Entries will be displayed outdoors at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center, and indoors and outdoors at the Peninsula SPCA. Space is limited—especially for indoor entries—so register today!

Individual / Student Entry Fee $30
 Business / Team Entry Fee $60
Each entry submission includes 2 tickets to the August 6, 2017 event
Registration deadline: June 2, 2017
